

As a licensed amateur I am very concerned about BPL and it's impact on HF communications. I think that the anticipated interference with existing HF communications will be significant, in particular regarding emergency communications. I think that more research into BPL's impact on existing spectrum users needs to be done.

Thank you for your time.